

NEW ZEALAND SIGN LANGUAGE WEEK 2-8 MAY 2011

nzsign.co.nz

New Zealand Sign Language is unique to this country and is one of our official languages. It is a combination of hand shapes, facial expressions and body movements.

Sign language is the voice of Deaf people and enables them to fully participate in our communities. It's also a whole lot of fun and anyone can learn New Zealand Sign Language. It's literally in your hands so why not start learning today!
